Old Business

- All landowners are O.K. with seeding and leveling their section of the trail.
- Groomer needs to go to ASV this summer when we have the money to pay for repairs.
- The road signs are up at the crossings.
- Damage was done on Marshal Rd. by 4-wheelers. We need some signs on some of the private road the area. Howard is working on a list for us.
- Meat raffle May 6th: Willard and Kay, May 20th: Jan J. and Dick.
- Tour of Businesses went well; we had about 34 members and the food was great. We may want to change evening meal to something a little lighter after eating all day.
- Addition of new ATV road routes will be on the agenda of May town meeting.
- The April 6th county meeting was cancelled; it may be at a later date. Jan will let us know.
- The Thank You to commercial members was handed around to be signed.
- Mary had a question about the registration forms that go to AWSC for members who haven't paid during the last three years.
- It was decided not to do a club business card, but put an ad in the Shopper to advertise the meat raffle. Bring the ad for a free raffle ticket for the May 20th raffle.
- We received a Thank You from Crystal Lake Bar for the Easter baskets.

New Business

- Tim J. reported that the maintenance dinner will be on May 13th at Soft Pines. He will reserve 6 seats.
- There will be a hunt in December. Tim explained what is happening; it is a one year trial.
- Our grooming money will come in September.
- Jan had nothing from the county.
- We discussed a summer ATV ride. Tabled until next meeting.
- We are holding an ATV safety class on June 16 and 17. I do not have registration material yet. We will get help from Randy Moey from Gordon.
- Flea Market: We will sell brats and dogs again. Jean will bring coffee from Arco.
- Food and Fun tickets: Motion by Chuck to have Mary print 500 and keep amounts the same as last year. Second by Kay. Motion carried. Make posters to put out.
- We need to send a Thank You to Butch Erickson and a gift certificate. Motion by Chuck. Second by Jan to spend $50.00. Motion carried. We will reschedule road clean up to next Saturday at 9:00.

Motion to adjourn by Chuck M. Second by Willard. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned at 11:00.

Respectfully submitted,

Patricia McDermott
