The treasurer's report was approved as read. Balance on hand was $2,274.38 with $1,867.38 in operating expenses and $407.00 in the groomer fund. Motion by Jon. Second by Mark H. Motion carried.

OLD BUSINESS

- Chuck S. has been out with the grader and will go out again before Memorial Day.
- The Minong club has purchased a groomer for ATV trails and is looking for someone to pick it up for them.
- No one volunteered for the meet raffles in June.
- Chuck S. Dick put up more signs where they were needed.
- The new trail on Lakewood's to Gram has been approved and will be signed around June 12. Permission was granted with a right of way on private property. Pogo's donated $200.00 toward signage.
- Dick reported on the dinner at Soft Pines, they had an excellent meal and many door prizes.
- Summer ATV ride tabled until June in hopes of more people at the meeting.
- ATV class will be held June 16 & 17 with sign up at Stop-A-Sec and the Bait Shop in Gordon.
- Flea Market is Saturday May 27 at 8:00 AM.
- Raffle Tickets are ready.
- The seeding of the trails will start with Krause's land on Saturday June 3 at 8:00 AM.

NEW BUSINESS

- Tim had nothing from the county.
- A county wide ATV Club is being talked about and a meeting will be held June 4 at Lakewood's Resort in Cable at 1:00 PM.
- Jeff Kohn was introduced; he is part owner of Crystal Beach Resort.

Motion to adjourn by Mark H. Second by Jon. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned at 10:35.

Respectfully submitted,
